

BEFORE

The screenshot shows the Visual Studio Code interface with the file 'index.html' open. The code contains several errors and warnings, particularly regarding the use of the 'img' element without a 'srcset' attribute and the absence of a 'lang' attribute on the 'html' tag. The browser tab shows the results of a validation check at <https://validator.w3.org>, listing multiple errors and warnings.

AFTER

The screenshot shows the Visual Studio Code interface with the file 'index.html' open. The code has been modified to include the 'lang="en"' attribute on the 'html' tag and the 'srcset' attribute on the 'img' elements. The browser tab shows the validation results at <https://validator.w3.org>, indicating that the document checking completed with no errors or warnings.
